

Brittany Maxwell ('03)

(Awarded Posthumously)

Brittany Maxwell was a student who loved learning, with math and business being her favorite subjects. After earning an Associate of Arts degree at TCC, she went on to earn a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and a Master of Science in Taxation from the University of Central Florida. She became a CPA and specialized in audits of non-profits. She later became a chief financial officer.

Brittany was a “career recruiter” for TCC, sharing her love of the institution, and encouraging and guiding many family members and friends there. She volunteered her free time to assist others in our community, building handicap ramps and assisting the nonprofits she worked with in their many volunteer projects.

In 2022, Brittany was awarded the Associated Builders and Contractors Volunteer of the Year Award. She passed away in a car crash within a few months of receiving the award which was presented by Governor DeSantis.
