

Chriss Walker

Chriss Walker, a 1969 TCC graduate, is currently retired from the Department of Revenue, as a Senior Attorney. While employed he managed the legal issues and cases of the Florida Child Support Enforcement Program (CSE). From 1977 to 1994, Chriss was responsible for providing legal advice, and services to the CSE Directors, state office staff, statewide field staff, and legal service attorneys, who prosecuted paternity and child support establishment cases in all 67 Florida counties. Chriss managed the CES appellate process in cases before the five District Courts of Appeal, and the Florida Supreme Court. He drafted and lobbied the CSE Legislative Proposals before the Florida Legislature. In addition, Chriss managed the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act cases, and International Reciprocal Enforcement cases. He also represented CSE in all of its Lottery Intercept Cases, before the Division of Administrative Hearings. Recognition for Chriss' work has come in the form of the Award for Meritorious Service and the Claude Pepper Outstanding Government Lawyer Award. Chriss is active with 100 Black Men of America, Inc. and the Southside and Frenchtown Community Advisory Council.
