

LARRY BOURDEAU

Leon County Sheriff's Office

Larry has 28 years of law enforcement experience in Florida. He is currently the Captain of Law Enforcement Training at the Leon County Sheriff's Office, previously serving as the Director of Reentry and Inmate Programs. Before that, Larry held roles including Deputy Director of Security at the Florida Lottery, Chief Deputy Marshal at the Florida Supreme Court, Law Enforcement Coordinator at the Florida Public Safety Institute, and various positions at the Quincy Police Department and Tallahassee Police Department. He is also an Adjunct Professor at Tallahassee State College and a certified Law Enforcement Trainer.

Larry holds a master's degree in criminal justice administration and is a graduate of the FDLE Senior Leadership program (2014), Chief Executive Seminar (Class 53, 2019), and the Certified Public Managers Course at Florida State University (2023). He served as President of the State Law Enforcement Chief's Association in 2019-2021.

Larry is a proud husband of 24 years to his wife, Sara, and father to two children, Baylee and Brandon. He enjoys coaching youth sports, mentoring law enforcement professionals, and making a positive impact in the community.
