

BRICE GOOGLE

Leon County Sheriff's Office

Assistant Sheriff Brice Google began his career at the Leon County Sheriff's Office in 1994 as a dispatcher. He joined the Reserve Unit for a year before transferring to Uniform Patrol in 1997. In 1999, Google moved to the School Resource Unit as a Resource Deputy.

In 2001, he transitioned to the Criminal Investigations Bureau, where he worked as a Detective in the Vice Unit, Robbery Task Force, and Violent Crimes Unit. Notably, he was recognized by the U.S. Attorney's Office for his undercover work in a federal investigation. Google also led the first successful hazing case trial under Florida's new hazing law in 2006.

Promoted to Sergeant in 2008, Google supervised several units, including Uniform Patrol, Property Crimes, and Vice. He became a Lieutenant in 2015 and a Captain in 2018, overseeing various divisions. In 2020, he was promoted to Chief of Patrol & Investigations and later served as Chief of Judicial Services and Detention Administration.

In March 2024, he was promoted to Assistant Sheriff of the Department of Detention. Google actively supports local charities and is involved in several community organizations.
