

Lee Colson

Lee is a 1969 graduate of Tallahassee Junior College and a graduate of Florida Agriculture and Mechanical University.

Lee Colson retired from the Florida Public Service Commission on June 30, 2008, after 27 years as a Utilities System Engineer. Also during that time he worked as an Adjunct Professor at Florida A&M University, Tallahassee, Florida. From September 1976 to March 1981, Lee was employed by WFSU-TV, Florida State University, as a Radio/ Television Engineer. Lee also served in the US Navy (1970-1974 enlisted, 1974-1979 reserve). Lee is active in his Church (New Mt Zion AME), serving on the Trustee and Usher boards. Lee hobbies include House and build designs, raising beef cattle, and fishing.