

Randy Hanna

Randy serves as the Dean and Chief Executive Officer of Florida State University Panama City. Under his administration, the university has created five new degree programs at FSUPC. He previously served as Chancellor of the Florida College System and has taught graduate classes at the FSU College of Education and College of Law. He was also a professor at Tallahassee Community College.

A leader of a successful multi-state law firm, Bryant Miller Olive P.A., he served as chairman of the Florida Board of Bar Examiners and the Federal Judicial Nominating Commission for the Northern District of Florida. He was also a recipient of the Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award.

Randy is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where he received his Doctor of Education. He earned a Juris Doctorate with High Honors from Florida State University, received an MBA from Goizuetta Business School at Emory University, and a Bachelor of Science from the University of Florida. He was recognized with the FSU Grad Made Good Award in 2014 for his outstanding service.