

John R. Schilling

Trooper John Schilling is a Florida Highway Patrol Trooper assigned to the Tallahassee Field Office (Troop I). Trooper John Schilling is a graduate of the Pat Thomas Law Enforcement Training Academy in 2007. He started his Career with the Florida Department of Transportation in 2006 as a State Law Enforcement Officer. In July of 2011 The Florida Legislature merged FDOT and FHP into one agency keeping it under DHSMV and the Florida Highway Patrol.

Trooper Schilling is a Field Training Officer (FTO), he works in the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement unit (CVE) which is a specialized unit dealing with many aspects of Trucking Industry including weights, Over-Dimensional, Parts & Accessories, and Hours of Service. He also holds certifications in Motor Coach, Hazardous Materials, Post-Crash Inspections and Level 6 Radioactive Shipments.

He serves on the North Regional Honor Guard as the Asst. Team leader. Trooper Schilling is a member of the Quick Response Force (QRF) and a member of the statewide Rad-nuc Team which works high profile events.

Trooper Schilling is Married to Ashley Schilling who is the City Clerk for the City of Sopchoppy. They have two children Ansley age 10 and Peyton age 7.

Trooper Schilling also serves his local Community in Wakulla County being a member of the Wakulla Fire & Rescue, where he has served proudly since 2005 as a Volunteer holding the ranks of Lieutenant, Captain and Asst. Chief. Trooper Schilling is a certified Fire Fighter one, Wildland Firefighter and Certified Fire Officer one with the State of Florida.