

Warrants and Affidavit Writing

REGION XV

Online

Course Outline:

This class is designed for law enforcement personnel at all levels interested in having the components of a warrant broken down into simple, understandable concepts and having the drafting and execution process mapped out systematically. The class focuses on how to articulate probable cause in difficult cases and how to maximize the utility of your warrant by expansively delineating the property to be seized and effectively describing the entire premises to be searched.

Course Objectives:

- Components of a warrant affidavit
- The rules of 'premises' descriptions and 'property' delineations
- Common errors and helpful rules of thumb
- Defending warrants against attorneys, judges, prosecutors, and supervisors

Who Should Attend:

To attend this training the participant must be a Florida law enforcement officer, corrections officer, probation officer, or support personnel for a Florida law enforcement organization. For salary incentive courses, all officers outside Region III/XV must provide written authorization by agency representative requesting attendance and election of salary incentive or mandatory retraining.
