OLD BUSINESS:

Members were allowed to review the minutes from the February 2025 meeting.

Motion: Sgt. Varner moved to accept the minutes, which were seconded by Capt. Boyland. The minutes of the February 2025 meetings were approved.

NEW BUSINESS

Budget Update

Mike Fraser updated the council members on the current budget position. The current fiscal year ends on June 30, 2025. The current budget position has overspent by approximately $900. As actual costs are received from the final classes, that number is projected to decrease. FPSI will pay any excess expenditure to help ensure all funds are expended.

Commission Updates

Executive Director Hartman presented the updates from the CJSTC commission meeting on May 11- 15, 2025.

- Lethality assessment training (legislative mandate) must be completed by June 30, 2026, and can be located on the FDLE training website.
- A discussion was held regarding whether physical fitness standards (contact hours) could be transferred to other training centers.
- FPSI was recertified as a CJSTC-approved training center.
- The Commission approved a shotgun and rifle operator/instructor course and added it to the list of specialized training classes. Any officer carrying a rifle and/or shotgun must qualify with the said weapon beginning July 1, 2026.

Academy Updates

FPSI

- Director Hartman's contract was renewed for the 2025-2026 fiscal year.
- Director Glenn Alston will be retiring effective June 30. Director Logan Lane has taken over as Director of Certificate Programs and Continuing Education.

Course Updates

- All training funds have been allocated and spent. Courses have begun to be scheduled for the next fiscal year.
- Sgt. Varner requested that FPSI request Texas State's ALERRT grant-funded training to host a course at FPSI.
